Wants To Know?

"Pro Bono Publico" wants to know where the boys are. THE TRIBUNE can't answer the question very satisfactorily, but there is no lack of evidence that they are not all at home nights. What's the matter with the home?

Underwear! Underwear!

Jack Frost is calling your attention to the need of warmer underwear. Rozell & Barger have Cooper's, the Globe and the popular, non-shrinking Duofold. Better call and examine.

BLOCKS OUT LOTS OF WORK.

The McCook Commercial club at its meeting, Tuesday evening, blocked out work, which if consummated, will be of great benefit to the city.

The committee on revision of constitution and by-laws reported in a preliminary way, but the completed work will not be finally acted upon until a future meeting, soon to be called for that purpose.

A committee of five, Messrs. F. A. Pennell, F. M. Kimmell, J. F. Cordeal, Fred Bruns and S. S. Garvey, was appointed to confer with the city council concerning buying property now for future use of the municipality. This committee was afterwards authorized to take up with the city council the matter of improving the river roads, especially leading into McCook.

Messrs. F. M. Kimmell, H. C. Clapp and C. L. Fahnestock were constituted a committee to act in conjunction with the ladies of the W. C. T. U. in securing a rest room and facilities.

The membership of the club was increased by the addition of twenty-five new members at this meeting.

The hour of going to press cannot be delayed or deviated from and get into the regular one o'clock delivery. Be prompt.

Tell the County Sup't.

If any child who made an exhibit at the Boys' and Girls' County contest failed to receive a prize, I would be pleased to know it in order that the mistake may be rectified. It is my most sincere desire that no child be overlooked. At the close of the contest, some sacks, tea-towels and dishes were left in the court room. The owners may secure the same by calling at my office. CLAUDIA B. HATCHER, County Sup't.

Note Date of Address Slip.

Note the date on your address slip on THE TRIBUNE. If you have not paid your subscription for 1908, kindly call at office or mail amount due. No paper will be sent to those more than one year in arrears, and such accounts, after due notice and no response, will be placed for collection.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.

If you want to subscribe for or renew your subscriptions to any magazine or paper published, go to Barney Hofer, the old reliable local dealer, who will save you money. Get "wise" to strangers and don't get "stung" like so many have the past year.

STILLMAN BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Large Structure, Well Filled with Machinery, Goes Up in Flames.

The large barn on the Stillman farm, just a few miles east of the city, was destroyed by fire about nine o'clock, yesterday morning. The building, a large one, and its entire contents, practically, were destroyed. Mrs. Stillman succeeded in removing a few sets of harness, constituting the entire salvage. The loss amounts to $1,500; insurance $650. It is claimed the fire resulted from a passing freight train.

A Unique Entertainment.

Mrs. Mary A. Northrup entertained a large company of elderly friends, last Saturday afternoon, in a delightfully unique and clever manner. There were about thirty-five guests present on the occasion, eight of the younger ladies wearing fuchus and powdered hair to conform to the situation.

The home was appropriately and prettily decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums with pleasing effectiveness.

Progressive conversation furnished a large fund of amusement, the "odds" relating to the "even" wedding day anecdotes and the "evens" to "odds" stories of their first year of house keeping. Mrs. William Weygint won the first prize and Mrs. A. C. Ebert the consolation.

A two course lunch was served, Mrs. Northrup and Mrs. Marietta Hawley at the large table being assisted by Mrs. James Hatfield, Mrs. C. H. Boyle, Mrs. T. B. Campbell, Mrs. J. G. Stokes and others.

A program added to the pleasure of the occasion. Mrs. Edker Burton gave two vocal numbers, Little Mary Boyle sang, Mrs. G. B. Hawkes read two selections, "Annie Laurie" was a piano number, there were responses to toasts by Mrs. Sylvester Cordeal, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Northrup and others, and the company departed after singing "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds."

In every respect the affair was one of marked interest and cordiality, with tender touches and much joy.

JOINING CORN ASSOCIATION.

Hundreds of farmers in all parts of the United States are showing their interest in the movement to produce more and better corn and in the National Corn Exposition, by sending in memberships to the National Corn Growers' association.

This association inspired the National Corn show. It is composed of corn growers in all parts of the United States, who send $1 membership fee to Secretary J. Wilkes Jones at Omaha, which is used to aid in furthering the work of the association.

During the last week almost three hundred have mailed applications for membership and the $1 fee to the secretary, and this year they receive an admission to the corn show at Omaha on the membership ticket.

Corn growers from the following states have sent in memberships recently: Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas and Wisconsin.

Several memberships have been received from England, Mexico, Canada and other foreign countries. Omaha, December 9-19, 1908.

Has a Fight With Trainmen.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 13.—Oscar Kent, a stockman of Republican City, Neb., almost demoralized train schedules on the Burlington last night. He had a dispute with the conductor of the St. Louis-Denver train which left here at 12:25. In a fight which followed he knocked the conductor down. The brakeman was similarly treated, and the train, which had gone a mile, was backed to the city, where officers were on hand and arrested Kent. Another conductor was secured. The train was delayed nearly an hour and a number of other trains were delayed in consequence. Kent said he was asleep when the conductor aroused him and had been dreaming that he was fighting.
